

Risk Book Authors and Reviewers

Christiaan Ahlers, FIA, FASSA, MSc. From 2004 he has been involved in supervision, previously pensions and currently insurance. He is Head of the Actuarial Division at the Prudential Authority, South Africa. He serves on the IAA's Insurance Regulation Committee.

Adrian Allott, FIAA, FNZSA. Adrian is a Senior Adviser at the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and leads work on insurer capital requirements. He previously headed Milliman's Bucharest office and was CFO & Actuary for life insurers in Romania and the Philippines. He is a past president of the Romanian Actuarial Association. His primary areas of interest are life insurance, defined contribution pensions and enterprise risk management.

Jeff Blacker, FSA, MAAA, is an independent consulting actuary with life and health insurance experience in the U.S., Latin America, Africa, and India. He has been the lead trainer for courses developed by the Access to Insurance Initiative, the International Actuarial Association, and the International Labour Organization. Jeff is also an actuarial exam instructor with The Infinite Actuary.

Ralph Blanchard, FCAS, MAAA, is currently retired after working for forty-four years in the insurance industry. His last position was as Vice President & Actuary for the Accounting Policy Department at The Travelers Companies, Inc, located in Hartford, Connecticut, USA. His area of expertise is property/casualty insurance, particularly those areas involving financial reporting (including U.S. GAAP, U.S. statutory and fair value estimates, IFRS 17), asbestos claim liabilities, Risk Based Capital measurements (including the proposed Insurance Capital Standard of the IAIS and the U.S. NAIC RBC formulae), and capital management issues. He is also a past president of the Casualty Actuarial Society and has served on a number of IAA committees.

Dr. Peter Boller was a qualified actuary in Germany and Switzerland, and a founding member of the Chief Risk Officer (CRO) forum. He served on the IAA Insurance Regulation Committee, as chair of the ASTIN Section, and as chair of the Reinsurance Subcommittee of the IAA.

Nigel Bowman, FASSA, is an experienced life insurance actuary having worked extensively in product development roles, focussing on inclusive insurance markets in sub-Saharan Africa. He has co-founded a digital inclusive insurance start-up and is currently consulting to a wide range of life insurance clients. Nigel has chaired the IAA's Inclusive Insurance Virtual Forum.

Andrew Bulley

Malcolm Campbell, MA, DSA, CERA, is a consultant actuary specialising in business development and risk management. His experience includes being part of a team that built up a network of new life companies in a number of countries across the globe. He is a past president of the IAA and past chairperson of the AAE.

Barbara (Chabbaga) Chesire has been in the insurance industry for over 15 years and is a champion for inclusive insurance as a tool for poverty alleviation. Barbara is passionate to see insurance play a role in increasing financial resilience across Africa. She co-founded AB

Consultants in 2014 with the aim to build the capacity of the African insurance industry to offer meaningful solutions and to make insurance accessible to those who need it most. She has pioneered several initiatives within the insurance industry including design of the first Human-Wildlife Conflict Insurance scheme and development of an insurance game, ResilientME! that aims to educate people of all ages about insurance and financial management.

Ms. Hsiu-Mei Chang, MAAA, FCAS contributed to the first version of this note and was a Risk Director at AIG Model Risk Management Group (MRMG) leading the model validation and various model risk management functions of property/casualty actuarial models. Before joining AIG, she had more than 25 years of experience in providing Insurance / Risk solutions in various capacities for many global (re)insurance, consulting, and auditing firms. She holds an M.S. degree in Statistics from University of Kentucky.

Kudzai Chigiji, FIA, FASSA, has actuarial experience spanning life insurance, healthcare and banking, as well as having worked in management consulting and with big pharma clients. She now runs a venture building firm and angel fund. She is the Past Chair of the ASSA Banking Committee and is a current member of the IFoA's Council. She has served the IAA in the past through IACA Executive Board and the Banking Forum as its founding Secretary.

Karen Clark, is President and CEO of Karen Clark & Company and a leading authority on catastrophe risk assessment and management. Ms. Clark developed the first hurricane model and founded the first catastrophe modeling company, Applied Insurance Research (AIR) which subsequently became AIR Worldwide after acquisition by Insurance Services Office. Ms. Clark has spent over 25 years working closely with scientists, engineers and other experts to develop the most advanced catastrophe models, and she continues to lead the development of new risk metrics and software applications that are used globally as sophisticated tools for catastrophe risk assessment and management. Ms. Clark holds an MA in Economics and an MBA from Boston University.

Maryellen Coggins, FCAS, MAAA, CERA, is a Managing Director at PwC. She is located in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. Her principal areas of expertise include enterprise risk management and property & casualty insurance.

Bob Conger, FCAS, MAAA, HonFIA, is a retired general insurance actuary. For most of his career, Bob was a consultant with Willis Towers Watson and its predecessor companies including Tillinghast, serving general insurance companies, regulators, law firms and other entities in the US and internationally. Bob was a very active volunteer for the IAA; for ASTIN and other IAA Sections; for the Casualty Actuarial Society, including serving as CAS President; and for The Actuarial Foundation in the US, including two terms on the Board, and leading the launch of TAF's Risk Committee.

Simon Curtis, FCIA, FSA, from 2015 – 2022 Simon was the Head of Munich Re's Global Life & Health Reserving based out of Munich Germany and previously was the Global Chief Actuary of Manulife Financial based out of Toronto, Canada. He serves on the Actuarial Standards Board in Canada as well as the IAA's Actuarial Standards and Communications Committees. He is a Past President of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries. His primary practice areas are Life and Health Insurance and Reinsurance.

Nick Dexter, FIA, is a Non-Executive Director of MAPFRE MSV plc and is based in the UK. Until the end of 2022, he was a Senior Advisor at the Prudential Regulation Authority. His principal areas of expertise include life insurance and enterprise risk management.

Janet Duncan, FCAS, FSA, MAAA, is an actuarial Lecturer at UCSB. She has over 30 years of property/casualty financial analysis experience including commercial and personal lines reserving and pricing, financial and capital modeling, planning, and management reporting, Janet has served on several actuarial committees for the CAS, SOA and AAA.

Marius du Toit, B.Comm, FASSA, has prior to retirement been a pension and insurance regulator at the Financial Sector Conduct Authority (previously the Financial Services Board), in South Africa. He started his career in life insurance product development, and later moved to pension consulting. His experience includes pricing in life insurance, private pension fund valuations and various aspects of regulation. He has served on several committees of Actuarial Society of Africa and the IAA and is a past chairman of PBSS.

J. Helmut Engels, FCIA, FSA, CERA is a Canadian actuary whose career has included both financial reporting at a large Canadian international insurance company and with the Canadian federal regulator (OSFI). His principal areas of expertise include financial reporting/valuation (Canadian, US NAIC and US GAAP) and enterprise risk management. He is an active volunteer with the Canadian Institute of Actuaries and the IAA.

Michael Eves, UK qualified actuary and former Group Chief Actuary of Swiss Re Group.

Mark Freedman, FSA, MAAA. Mark is a board member of Munich Re Life US. Previously, he was a principal at Ernst & Young LLP. At EY, Mark assisted major US and global insurers in financial management and reporting issues, mergers and acquisitions, and financial modeling. He started his career at Philadelphia Life Insurance Company. Mark is a past president of the Society of Actuaries.

Jacqueline Friedland, FCIA, FCAS, FSA, is currently the Executive Director of the Risk Assessment and Intervention Hub of the Office of Superintendent of Financial Institutions (OSFI), where she is responsible for front line supervision of banks, insurers, and pension plans. She joined OSFI after decades working as a property-casualty actuary, which included senior leadership roles at international insurers and in consulting firms. She is past president of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries and a long-time volunteer with the International Association of Actuaries, the Casualty Actuarial Society, and the Society of Actuaries.

Alexander Fritsch, Dipl.-Math. oec., MSc, Aktuar DAV, CERA, is senior actuary in Hannover Re's dynamic financial analysis department.

Yosuke Fujisawa is the head of data science at Sumitomo Life as well as a lecturer at Waseda University. He has more than 20 years of actuarial experience in pensions, risk management and reinsurance. He is qualified as a Fellow of Actuaries of Japan and CERA with a masters degree of actuarial science, University of Waterloo.

Denis Garand is a Fellow of both the Canadian Institute of Actuaries and the Society of Actuaries. He has been an independent actuarial consultant since 2001. Previously, he was Vice-President of Group Insurance for a major insurance company. Assignments have included product development and pricing of all group products. Internationally, Denis has advised regulators, government health and health insurance programs and microinsurance organizations in over 40 countries.

Charles Gilbert, FSA, FCIA, CERA, is president and founder of Nexus Risk Management. He is located in Toronto, Canada. He works with insurance and reinsurance companies worldwide to implement and execute dynamic hedging programs, asset liability management (ALM), and enterprise risk management (ERM).

Caroline Grégoire, BSc from Université de Montréal, is an associate member of the Swedish Actuarial Association. She has worked in various positions at Hannover Re in Hannover, Germany, including reserving for property and casualty business, internal audit, operational and qualitative risk management, and risk reporting.

Jules Gribble has been a fully qualified actuary for over 30 years and has represented Australia at the IAA for many years, most recently on the Inclusive Insurance Virtual Forum and Risk Book Editorial Board. He has broad consulting experience and an ongoing interest in efficiently and holistically managing retirement. Jules has also been a thought leader on actuarial education and supervisory capacity building for over 20 years.

Sam Gutterman, FSA, FCAS, MAAA, Hon FIA, CERA, FCA, is a consulting actuary, located in Glencoe, Illinois, USA. His areas of expertise include financial reporting for all lines of insurance, social insurance, demographics, and the environment.

R. Dale Hall, FSA, MAAA, CERA, CFA is Managing Director of Research for the Society of Actuaries Research Institute (SOA), responsible for managing research projects and experience studies across the SOA's wide variety of actuarial practice areas and markets and coordinating strategic research partnerships. Prior to joining the SOA in 2013, Dale spent over 20 years in the US insurance industry, primarily as Chief Actuary for the Life/Health companies of COUNTRY Financial and as an adjunct professor in the actuarial science program at Illinois State University. He earned his MBA in Finance from Capital University and his BS in Mathematics from John Carroll University.

R. Thomas Herget, FSA, MAAA, CERA is a life company actuary who has held positions at insurers, accounting and software firms. His experience includes risk analysis, valuation, marketing and project management. He served as author and editor of U.S. GAAP for Life Insurers (2000 and 2006), Insurance Industry Mergers & Acquisitions (2005) and International Financial Reporting for Insurers (2019). He is a past director of the Society of Actuaries and American Academy of Actuaries.

Mary Hosford, FCAS, MAAA, is a health insurance regulator at the Massachusetts Division of Insurance, with previous positions in general insurance lines of business. Her experience includes pricing and reserving in both public and private sector settings, domestic and internationally, within both standard and surplus lines markets. She is a past Director of the Casualty Actuarial Society and has served on several IAA committees.

Trevor Howes, FCIA, FSA, MAAA is Director - Actuary at Moody's Analytics in Toronto, Canada. He has over 40 years combined experience working in the Canadian Life Insurance industry and at Moody's Analytics, which serves the life insurance industry around the globe.

Alan Joynes, FIA, is a retired life reinsurance actuary with experience in group risk management, financial reporting, and, most recently, assessment of regulatory developments.

Toshihiro Kawano, FIAJ, is chief actuary at AEGON Sony Life Insurance Company in Tokyo, Japan.

Malcolm Kemp, FIA, M.A., CERA, is Managing Director of Nematrian Limited and is based in London, United Kingdom. His principal areas of expertise include risk, investment management, and quantitative finance.

Dieter Köhnlein, Aktuar DAV, CERA, is Managing Director of Actuarial Risk Consulting GmbH and is based in Cologne, Germany. His principal areas of expertise include non-life insurance, risk modeling and enterprise risk management.

Vijay Manghnani, PhD, FCAS, CCRA is the Exposure and Analytics Officer and Head of the AIG Cat Management and Analytics Center of Excellence. In this role, he is responsible for implementing state of the art science and analytics into the underwriting and risk management strategy. His focus includes quantification of emerging risks, catastrophe risk management, predictive modeling and portfolio optimization. Vijay is also Adjunct Professor at the Glenn Department of Civil Engineering, Clemson University. He has served as the Chair of the North American Actuaries Climate Change Committee, which is charged with quantifying the risk of climate change for the insurance industry. Vijay holds a Ph.D. in Meteorology from North Carolina State University.

Hillevi Mannonen, M.Sc, FASF, is a pension actuary and risk management professional serving now as board member of several companies. Her working experience covers regulatory and supervisory roles in Finland and she has made a long career as chief actuary and CRO in a pension insurance company. She has served in several roles in the IAA and the Actuarial Association of Europe and is a past president of the IAA.

Agrotosh Mookerjee

Eberhard Müller, Dipl. Math., Aktuar DAV, CERA, was chief risk officer and chief actuary of Hannover Re Group.

Jari Niittuinpera, M.Sc, LL.M., FASC, is the Chief Actuary in the Financial Supervisory Authority in Finland where he is responsible for life insurance companies.

Hassan S. Odierno

John Oost, AAG, RBA, is a Senior Risk Manager at Achmea. He is located in Zeist, The Netherlands. His principal areas of expertise include enterprise risk management and Solvency II.

Godfrey Perrott, FSA, MAAA, is retired. He was a principal at Milliman in its Boston, London, and Philadelphia offices. His primary area of practice is life insurance financial reporting

Dave Sandberg FSA, MAAA, CERA retired as Vice-President and Corporate Actuary at Allianz Life of North America in Minneapolis, MN and served as Chair of the IAA's Insurance Regulation Committee during the period 2013-2018. His principal areas of focus are life insurance, retirement income solutions and enterprise risk management.

Sheldon Selby, FSA, FCIA is an actuary working with the Canadian Regulator. He has over 25 years combined regulatory experience in insurance supervision and review of regulatory capital models.

David Sherwood, ASIP (and member of the CFA) is a Managing Director at Deloitte & Touche LLP. He has over 25 years' industry experience as a regulator, consultant and commercially working in both in the United Kingdom and United States.

Margaret Tiller Sherwood, FCAS, FSA, MAAA, FCA, CPCU, ARM, ERMP, CERA. Margaret is the President of Tiller Consulting Group, Inc. domiciled in the United States. She is a Past Chair of the International Association of Consulting Actuaries, a Past President of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries, and serves on the IAA's Actuarial Standards Committee. Her primary practice areas are general insurance, enterprise risk management, and group health.

Lindsay Smartt, based in Sydney Australia, is a company director sitting on boards of insurance companies and superannuation funds. During his executive career his roles included Chief Risk Officer and Appointed Actuary for Australian insurers and global reinsurers and in addition he was a consultant in Australia and Asia. Having qualified as an actuary in 1983, he has been active in the local profession including serving on the Actuaries Institute Council and as President in 2016. He has also contributed to the International Actuarial Association serving on a number of committees, forums and working groups.

Emma Stewart, FIA, BSc MMORSE, is the Chief Actuary at Lloyd's of London and has responsibility for leading Reserving and Capital in the Lloyd's market. Her previous experience includes working in general insurance consultancy and personal lines pricing.

Donna Swiderek

Michiel van der Wardt, MSc AAG. Michiel is a senior actuary and risk manager, with more than 28 years working experience. Since 2011 he is providing actuarial and risk management services to insurance and reinsurance companies in Europe. Michiel is vice-chairman of ASTIN since 2014 and Section Representative for all Sections since 2018.

William von Seggern, FCAS, MAAA is a Risk Coverage Officer at Allianz SE providing risk oversight for several Allianz operating entities. Before joining Allianz SE he was a Senior Actuarial Director at Fireman's Fund Insurance Company leading three commercial insurance pricing teams.

David Sherwood, ASIP (and member of the CFA) is a Managing Director at Deloitte & Touche LLP. He has over 25 years' industry experience as a regulator, consultant and commercially working in both in the United Kingdom and United States.

Annie Tay, FIA, CERA, is a practising actuary with about 30 years of experience in global insurance businesses. Based in the UK, Annie has held executive and non-executive roles on Boards and technical governing bodies, enterprise risk management, strategic insurance management (M&A, Digital Transformation, Fintech), and regulatory supervision or compliance for multi-national insurance groups and the Bank of England. She is an active volunteer with the International Actuarial Association. Annie is currently Vice Chair of the AFIR-ERM section.

Craig Thorburn

Gerd Warnke

Stuart Wason, FSA, FCIA, MAAA, Hon FIA, CERA. He retired in 2016 as Senior Director, Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (OSFI). He is a Past President of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries. He served as Chair of the IAA's Insurance Regulation Committee 2019-2021. His principal areas of expertise include life insurance and enterprise risk management.

Bill Weiland, FCIA, FCAS, is a consulting actuary with Eckler Ltd. in Toronto, Canada. He serves as Appointed Actuary for several Canadian insurers and prices automobile insurance products including serving as an expert witness for insurers in connection with rate filings. Bill has a long history of service with Canadian Institute of Actuaries, most recently serving as Chair of the International Affairs Council. He is Chair of the General Insurance Forum of the International Actuarial Association (IAA) and serves on the Board of ASTIN as an IAA delegate.

Kathy Wong, FSA, CERA is a retired actuary based in the U.S. Her executive career roles were primarily in financial reporting at major life insurance companies, and she continues as an active volunteer with the Society of Actuaries in the areas of education and professionalism. Her principal areas of expertise include reserve valuation and enterprise risk management.

Peter Withey, FASSA, is a life insurance actuary working for KPMG in South Africa. He has had a wide experience in industry and consulting over a 40 year career in both consulting and commerce. His primary area of work currently is in Assisting audit teams in assessment of actuarial liabilities and he also has experience in operational management and corporate actuarial reporting and analysis functions. He is a committed volunteer to the profession having served the Actuarial Society of South Africa in a variety of roles including President of the society in 2018-19. He is also active in the IAA on a number of committees.

Henry Yan